

JOB OPENING:
ARTISTIC DIRECTOR
Princeton, NJ

The Princeton Girlchoir offers excellence in choral education and performance opportunities for over 200 girls in grades 3-12 in five auditioned choirs. The Artistic Director oversees all artistic aspects of the choral program and also conducts the Concert Choir, a 70-voice girls' choir for grades 7-9.

This part-time (20-25 hrs/wk), 12-month position requires a bachelor's degree in music with a preference for a master's degree; choral conducting experience and advanced skills; a nurturing spirit with a passion for developing girls' voices; and excellent organizational and supervisory skills. Competitive salary is commensurate with experience. Position starts Summer 2009.

Details on the position, application requirements, and process are available at prinetongirlchoir.org or call 609.688.1888.

